Our Missionaries

Pray for Daria and Chad, Lisa, and Albert and June. All are SBC. Also pray for Prem and Kelley, and Cherie.

- Lisa writes about some of the recent joys she has experienced:
- Getting to meet and talk face to face with "Dr. Luke," the first local follower of JC that we know of! He came down from another area to visit us in our city.
- Laying on my toshak (the cushions on the floor that we sleep on) at night after we've turned out the lights, and talking into the night with a friend about heart matters that just aren't as easily shared when the lights are on

- Sitting in the car with a friend, waiting for our co-workers to finish up some business, I began reading her one of my favorite Psalms in English and then describing what it was saying in her language. After reading one, I stopped. She said, "Keep reading . . . this is really good!" His Words are truly sweeter than honey!!
- Being captivated by hearing a friend of mine tell the story of the ten commandments – realizing again the power of telling stories!

New Security System Codes

We will change the security system codes on Monday, November 13th. If you need a code, you must attend the training course on Sunday, November 12th in Fellowship Hall right after the morning service. This session will last about an hour. Please let Pastor Roger know if you plan to attend.

Conference Room Table

We plan to remove and dispose of the table in the conference room. We'll replace it with 72 inch folding tables that allow us to make better use of space in that room. If you would like to have the old table, contact Pastor Roger. We also plan to dispose of the round folding tables. If you would like one or more of these, see Pastor Roger.

What is the Church?

Part 6 of 9

The way in which members of the church were called on to treat one another was modeled by what God had done in Christ for the church. They were to forgive one another (Col. 3:12-14) and to love one another (Eph. 5:1-2; 1 John 3:16) because God had done this for all of them in Christ. This foundation for Christian fellowship gave an ultimacy to its requirements that reflected on each church member's relationship with God (1 John 2:7-11).

Wanted!

Dr Butler, the principal at Burnside Elementary School needs volunteers to be mentors and tutors. Mentors spend an hour a week talking to and encouraging students to have a mind set to learn. Tutors are needed in the area of reading skills. Hours are flexible and can meet your schedule.

Finally, the school has an inclosed courtyard that needs some gardening expertise. See Pastor Roger for more details.
